

CHARTER MEMBERS . . . Chapter P.N. Palos Verdes, newest chapter of the California State Chapter of P.E.O. Sisterhood, international organization, was organized Jan. 8 at the Neptunian Club. Charter members are, from left, front row, Mmes. James F. Meagher, Robert W. Boulger, D. B. West, Clarence E. Severson, H. M. Sippel. Second row, Mmes. Madge Burnett, R. W. Furman, Fletcher L. Baughn, Neil C. Brown, Robert C.

Helfrich, Ray Slater, Phillip T. Weaver, W. W. Wilkinson, Gordon C. Shields, Glenn W. Keach, Vetran Ricca. Third row, Miss Imogene Spaulding, Mmes. James W. Brittain Jr., Robert D. Evans, Edward L. Holmes, Melville H. Tully, Ted J. Satterfield, David W. Wilkinson, Ralph Meeker, J. D. Elliott, Gordon H. Nichol, S. E. Waldrip, Martha Peterson and Merton A. Albee.

EXTENDING HOSPITALITY . . . Mr. Joe Littlefield, guest speaker, is shown at the tea table following his lecture Wednesday at the meeting of the Garden Section of the Torrance Woman's Club. In the tea table picture are, from left, Mrs. F. G. Fittin, Mr. Littlefield, Mrs. John Thuss, garden section chairman; Mrs. L. A. McCoy and Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, club president.

New P.E.O. Chapter Is Granted Charter

Chapter P.N. Palos Verdes Estates, the newest chapter of California State Chapter of the P.E.O. Sisterhood, was granted its charter at an organizational meeting held Jan. 8 in the Neptunian Club, Manhattan Beach.

Mrs. T. W. Bullock, state organizer, was in charge of the meeting. Besides the charter group and their many guests, the meeting was honored by the attendance of Mrs. O. Raymond Garvin, California State President and five of her executive board.

Following the organization, luncheon was served.

Members of the charter list are: Mmes. Merton A. Albee, Fletcher L. Baughn, Robert W. Boulger, James W. Brittain Jr., Neil C. Brown, Madge Burnett, J. D. Elliott, Robert D. Evans, R. W. Furman, Robert F. Helfrich, Edward L. Holmes, Glenn W. Keach, James F. Meagher, Ralph Meeker, Gordon H. Nichol, Martha Peterson, Ted J. Satterfield, Clarence E. Severson, Gordon C. Shields, H. M. Sippel, Ray Slater, Vetran Ricca, Melville H. Tully, S. E. Waldrip, Phillip T. Weaver, D. B. West, W. W. Wilkinson and David W. Wilkinson.

Officers of the new group are: Mmes. Clarence E. Severson, president; Robert C. Helfrich, vice president; Phillip T. Weaver, recording secretary; Ray Slater, corresponding secretary; Robert W. Boulger, treasurer; H. M. Sippel, chaplain; and James F. Meagher, guard.

The P.E.O. Sisterhood, an international organization, was founded by seven Iowa Wesleyan College girls on Jan. 21, 1869, at Mount Pleasant, Iowa. The Sisterhood has grown to an extent of more than 140,000 members in chapters of the United States, Canada and Hawaii.

P.E.O. maintains an Educational Loan Fund to assist girls in furthering their education and last year the fund had grown to the amount of $800,000.

The organization also has an International Peace Scholarship fund which they feel helps in a small way toward the attainment of world peace.

The Sisterhood owns and operates Cottey College for girls at Nevada, Mo. A number of foreign students are attending there on scholarship funds.

To Announce Candidates At Y Meet

Candidates for election to the committee on administration of the Torrance Branch YWCA will be introduced by the chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. Warren Hamilton, at a morning coffee at the YWCA on Thursday, March 6, at 10:30. Candidates include Mrs. Raymond Downing, Miss Pauline Greer, Mrs. Milton Huber, Mrs. Minot Rugg, Mrs. Archie Watson and Mrs. Eric Wescombe.

Candidates for election to the nominating committee will also be introduced. These include Mrs. Natt Jamieson, Mrs. C. Albert Smith, Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, Mrs. Paul Crossman, Mrs. John Schwartz, Mrs. Lee McCoy, and Mrs. Robert Moffitt. Members are invited to drop in and meet their candidates.

Results of the election will be announced at the annual meeting of the Torrance branch which is scheduled as a 1 o'clock dessert on Tuesday, April 1.

Tea to Honor 'Rose Care' Discussed for Garden Section Tea Guests

Executive board of the Junior Woman's Club will be honored at a tea next Wednesday afternoon by the Torrance Woman's Club. A business meeting will be held at 1 p.m. with Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, president, in charge.

Mrs. Don Wolf, program chairman, will present Anne Reher, lecturer and musician, in a "recitalogue" entitled "Emily Post Around the World."

Hostesses for the tea following the program will be Mmes. J. Muhleck, W. I. Laughon and Kenneth Figgins.

Mrs. W. C. Crooker will introduce a new member, Mrs. Ann Todd.

"In the Torrance area where mildew is so prevalent, the foliage on roses should be washed off every morning and roses should be given a deep soaking once a week," according to Joe Littlefield, television and radio gardening expert who spoke at the silver tea given by the Garden Section of the Torrance Woman's Club Wednesday.

Mr. Littlefield demonstrated the trimming of roses and spoke of their spraying and care. He also gave pointers on the care and spraying of all plants.

Approximately fifty members and guests were present to hear the speaker.

Mrs. Peter Boonstra and Mrs. Godfrey Nelson greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. John Warnock was in charge of the guest book.

Serving as hostesses for the tea were Mrs. L. A. McCoy and Mrs. F. G. Fittin. Presiding at the beautifully decorated tea table were Mrs. Dean Sears, Mrs. E. C. St. Amand and Mrs. L. A. McCoy.

A large number of door prizes were awarded through the courtesy of the Red Star Fertilizer Co. The main prize, a house plant, was won by Mrs. S. J. Dunhouse. Mrs. Martin Jones was in charge of the prizes.

Carol Brown Is Now Mrs. Richard Steck

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Steck are now at home at 520 W. 120th St., Los Angeles, following their wedding at the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes on Feb. 14. The Rev. Richard Dawson officiated.

Mrs. Steck is the former Carol Jean Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Brown, 112 Paseo De Suenos, Hollywood Riviera.

The Valentine wedding climaxed a romance which began on the campus at Baker University in Baldwin Kansas.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Steck of Axtell, Kansas.

The bride represented the fourth generation in her family to graduate from Baker. She majored in English and was graduated in the spring of 1957. Since then she has been employed as librarian in San Pedro. She will work on her master's degree in library science at USC this summer.

Mr. Steck is continuing his education at UCLA.

MRS. RICHARD STECK
 . . . A Recent Bride

Card Party

A card party sponsored by the Torrance Rebekah Lodge, will be held on Wednesday in the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

The games will start at 8 p.m. and prizes will be awarded for high scores and a door prize will be given.

During the adding of the tallies, Mrs. Maud Milburn and her committee will serve refreshments.

Trio Odd Fellows Lodge will hold the regular business meeting in the main hall at the same hour.

DETROIT GUESTS

Arriving by plane Tuesday from Detroit will be Mr. and Mrs. David Glanzrock, who will spend three weeks here with their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Gans, 1011 Kornblum Ave.

THEY WILL SING . . . "Temple Sweethearts" will open the annual variety show to be given by Temple Menorah on March 29. They are, from left, first row, Mmes. Bernard Rivo, Ed Sokolski. Second row, Mmes. Bert Shupps, Hy Fontwit. Back row, Mmes. Harvey Cole, Mel Margulies, Allan Freedman, choreographer Al Carmona and Seymour Bogin.

Rehearsals for Annual Temple Variety Show Under Way

A cast of over forty performers are in rehearsal now for Temple Menorah's Annual Variety Show "Menorahscapades of 1958" to be presented at the Campus Theatre, El Camino College, Crenshaw and Redondo Beach Blvd., on Saturday, March 29. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

The show, a two-hour original production, written and directed by Sylvia and Syd Siegel, Linda Chaiken and Marcy Schumacher, with original lyrics by Sylvia Siegel, will offer an evening of delightful entertainment for those attending. A variety of talent will be woven into the over-all theme of the show.

The starring performers in the show are Syd Siegel and Marcy Schumacher, comic treats; Linda Chaiken, professional singer; Mel Schumacher and Sylvia Siegel. Some of the featured acts this evening are Sol Mann, tenor; Ed Sokolski, piano stylist; The Temple

Sweethearts; the Golden Girls; Erla Freedman, dancer; Faye and Harry Newman, singing duets; a Tango Couple. There are many other skits to be presented throughout the evening. Rabbi Henry Front also has a surprise part in the show.

Business arrangements for the show are under the direction of Mrs. Stan Lieber and Mrs. Don Finklestein.

Gordon Lloyd To Address Fuchsia Unit

Gordon Baker Lloyd, TV and radio gardening expert, will be the speaker at the meeting of the North Torrance Branch of the California National Fuchsia Society, Tuesday evening, March 11.

Mr. Lloyd, who presents his television show from his own garden, will address the meeting at the McMasters Hall, 174th and Yukon at 8 p.m.

All friends of the "Gordon's Garden" program are invited to attend. Mrs. Philip Clark, president, will introduce the speaker.

Jim Calhour, plant chairman, promises an interesting plant table. A white elephant sale will also be held. Refreshments will be served during the social hour.

Garden Club Hears Talk

Mrs. William Fitzgerald spoke on "The Planting and Care of Tuberous Begonias" at the meeting of the Green-thumbers Garden Club at the home of Mrs. John Klug.

Mrs. George Horton, vice president, conducted the business meeting. Nominations for new officers to be voted on at the next meeting were made. Mr. Klug entertained the guests with picture slides of the family trip to the east last summer. Attending the meeting were Mmes. Maude Vulgamott, William Fitzgerald, Paul Kolleck, Josephine Fitzgerald, Harry Allen, George Horton, John Knight, Clarence Barrow, Louis Wilhelm and Less Sellmeyer.